

PNet Questions

1. What is a demarc point?
 - It is where the carrier delivers the circuit
2. What is the significance of a demarc point?
 - It is where the carriers responsibility ends
3. What is a Main Distribution Frame?
 - It is the location where all the user connects end up at. The equipment providing the service is in the same location
4. What is an Intermediate Distribution Frame?
 - Wiring distribution point for a specific area
5. Why use an IDF?
 - So you do not have to run cables so far
6. In a conventional small network, where would you expect to find the MDF?
 - Server room
7. If you had a network that covered five floors in a building, how many IDF(s) and MDF(s) would you expect to have?
 - 1 MDF, 5 IDF's
8. What purpose does an IDF serve?
 - Makes it so you do not have to run end user cables so far